

2021-2022 Season Preview for the Sephardi Federation of Palm Beach County

Most activities will take place at Temple Shaarei Shalom (TSS), located at 9085 Hagen Ranch Road, Boynton Beach, FL 33472

The Sephardi Federation of Palm Beach County recommends full COVID vaccination. We must follow the policies established by the facilities we use which at this time includes wearing masks and social distancing.

Sundays

“Vijita de Alhad” Sunday Visits

Our Vijitas combine an educational presentation with social time and Sephardic style refreshments. RSVP and Zoom info will be provided one month prior to each event.

~ Sunday, October 24, 2021– 3:00pm

TSS Room 110-114

“Our Sephardic Experience” Rabbi Nissim Elnécave

Our First In-Person Event since Feb. 2020 - come together for a sweet social reunion!!

Rabbi Elnécave focuses on collaborating with Sephardic communities across the country. His background as a Mexican-born descendant of a Ladino-speaking Turkish family served him well as Rabbi for Mikdash Eliyahu in Brooklyn and consultant for Yeshiva University. Rabbi Elnécave is a new resident of Miami, FL.

Web Link For Zoom: <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwkdu6vrTloGdEJOaNdNLEcialsHsIASeWp>

$10/Members $12/Guests Includes coffee and refreshments. In Person RSVP: administrador@sephardifederationpbc.org (561) 301-0119

~ Sunday, November 14, 2021– 3:00pm

TSS ROOM 110-114

“The Monastir Project” Sarah Aroeste via Zoom

We are proud to have been included as an organizational sponsor for Sarah Aroeste’s Monastir Project. What began as an idea to collect and record songs from her family’s roots in Bitola became an international initiative to build awareness of the lost Jewish community’s history, honor its memory and restore an ancient cemetery. She will give us a personal update on her project’s progress as well as some live performances of songs from her album whose making involved over 30 musicians, 5 countries, 10 tracks, and 3 languages coming together to celebrate the once-flourishing Sephardic community of Monastir.

$12/Members $15/Guests Includes coffee and Sephardic refreshments.

($10 suggested Zoom donation) RSVP details to follow.

~ Sunday, January 16, 2022– 3:00pm

TSS TEMPLE SANCTUARY

“Jews of Izmir” Dina Danon via Zoom

Assistant Professor of Judaic Studies and History at Binghamton University/NY, Dina Danon shares insights from her new book. Using previously untapped Ladino archival material, Prof. Danon presents a new view on this often overlooked Sephardi community, which was a major center of Jewish life for over 400 years in the exotic Ottoman port city of Izmir.

$12/Members $15/Guests Includes coffee and dessert post-concert reception

($10 suggested Zoom donation) RSVP details to follow.

~ Sunday, February 13, 2022– 3:00pm

TSS TEMPLE SANCTUARY

“Siempre Ladino—Ladino Forever” Susana Behar South Florida/International Ladino Day Concert

Exciting presentation of Judeo-Spanish music interpreted by renown performer and Federation member Susana Behar accompanied by outstanding musicians and dancing. Inspired by her album Tapiz and her Ladino studies, her program includes songs from Andalusia to the Balkans. Don’t miss Susana’s extraordinary and moving renditions of traditional and new Ladino songs.

$25/Members $30/Guests Includes coffee and dessert post-concert reception.

RSVP and more details to follow.

This event is sponsored in memory of Albert & Doris Altabet and Sarah & Leon (Yehudah) Saltiel.